

RUBEN S. AYALA KEY CLUB

CODE OF CONDUCT

Event: _____

All Key Clubbers must adhere to the following conduct:

All attendees will respect the authority of the Key Club Administration and designated staff. All attendees will abide by all government laws and regulations. Attendees may not possess, use, or consume any tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, any drugs or other controlled substance (with the exception of medication prescribed for the attendee), or any weapons, firecrackers, or anything of a dangerous nature. Attendees will respect the property of others, conference facility and lodging facility. Any damage caused by an attendee must be paid for by that attendee. Attendees will not act in any way unbecoming of a Key Club or Kiwanis Family member. Attendees are expected to abstain from any activity of a sexual nature. Attendees are expected to not tolerate hazing or any action that creates unnecessary physical or mental discomfort, embarrassment, harassment or ridicule of others. Attendees should wear appropriate Key Club attire when attending events. Attendees have a duty to report infractions of this code of conduct in order to maintain the purpose and safety of this event.

Key Club is an international, student-led organization that provides its members with opportunities to provide service, build character, and develop leadership skills. The Key Club family has over 260,000 members, 5,000 clubs, and exist in over 31 different countries worldwide. As a Key Club member, one must uphold the qualities of leadership, inclusiveness, caring, and character building that are established in this club. One must also act reasonably and responsibly when given an opportunity to provide service for the community. Any violation of unreasonable standards will have repercussions.

By signing, you hereby agree to take full responsibility for your actions and work to provide a safe environment for any event you go to.
